

G.O.P. LEADERS SHAPE COURSE OF CAMPAIGN IN MARION MEETING

ALLEGES ACTS OF VIOLENCE UNDER POLITICAL LAWS

Colored Committeeman Of Georgia Makes Serious Charge.

NEGROES LYNCHED

Penalty Affixed For Voting Republican Ticket Speaker Avers.

Chicago, July 9.—Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro Republican national committeeman of Georgia, told the senate committee investigating pre-convention campaign expenditures of candidates that negroes who have voted the Republican ticket in Georgia have "disappeared" and never have been heard of again.

The committee was questioning Johnson about lynchings in the south. "They don't lynch men for belonging to the Republican party, do they?" asked Senator Kenyon.

"Oh, yes, they do," Johnson replied. "Many a negro voting the Republican ticket has disappeared and no tidings have ever been heard of him."

Johnson declared that backers of General Wood spent "around $60,000 in Georgia, while the Lowden supporters spent only $20,000."

Clark L. Grier, former postmaster at Augusta, Ga., was the "pay-off man" for the Wood people, Johnson said, adding that Grier worked under direct orders from Frank Hitchcock, former postmaster general.

Democrats paid from $5 to $5,000 for votes in Georgia this year and "generally spent more money than the Republicans," Johnson told the committee.

"Not one cent given to me was given to any delegate to the Republican national convention," the witness declared. He said he received $9,000 from Illinois, "but not from Governor Lowden himself." He spent $7,000 or $8,000 of his own money, he added, and $4,000 was raised from other sources.

COST MARKS MUST BE SET ON SHOES RULES COMMISSION

Fair Price List On Shoes Issued By Fair Price Body.

Columbus, July 9.—Selling price tags on all pairs of shoes or cartons must be in plain figures, John Pfeiffer, Ohio fair price commissioner, ruled in making public a "fair margin" list on shoes to merchants. The list is effective Saturday, July 10.

Following is the list, the first figure of each item representing the retailers' cost and the second the per cent of gross profit allowed:

Fabric shoes (all sizes ranges) up to and including $7, 33 1-3 per cent; men's and women's shoes, up to and including $12, 35 per cent; boys' shoes (sizes 1 to 6) up to and including $6, 32 per cent; youths' and little girls' shoes (sizes 9 to 12) up to and including $4, 32 per cent; infants' shoes (sizes 0 to 5) up to and including $2, 30 per cent; children's shoes (sizes 5 to 8) up to and including $3, 30 per cent; children's shoes (sizes 8 1/2 to 11) up to and including $4, 32 per cent; misses' shoes (sizes 11 to 2) up to and including $5, 33 1-3 per cent; big girls' shoes (sizes 2 1/2 to 7) up to and including $8, 33 1-3 per cent.

POLISH FLANKS TURNED BY RUSS

Berlin July 9.—Both the northern and southern flanks of the Polish army have been turned by the Russians on the 400 mile battle front between the Dvina and Bug rivers, according to a report reaching the headquarters of the Entente mission today. The Russians are making a strong effort to get behind the main Polish army to cut off its retreat. This news was unofficial and has not been confirmed.

CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Sunday, July 11. No church school. The church school has been adjourned for the summer months, and will not meet until September. Morning prayer at 10:30 a. m.

Conferences Open At Harding Headquarters On Friday.

WOOD TO ATTEND

General To Lend Assistance To Republican Committee.

Marion, O., July 9.—Conferences opened today at the Harding headquarters that are expected to shape the early work of the Republican national campaign.

National Chairman Will M. Hayes and Harry M. Daugherty, pre-convention manager for Harding, came to discuss general campaign matters with Senator Harding, the Republican nominee.

Colonel T. Coleman Dupont, national committeeman from Delaware, chairman of a special committee to arrange the notification ceremonies, is expected here to perfect plans for the reception of the Republican party leaders who are to attend and to get started properly the visiting delegations that are to inaugurate the "front porch" campaign.

General Leonard Wood, contender, with Senator Harding for the Republican nomination, is coming to consult with Senator Harding on methods that will insure the swinging to the Harding-Coolidge ticket of all the strength developed by and for General Wood.

With these conferences concluded and the various suggestions made at them whirled into working and workable shape by the experts, Hayes and Daugherty, the first steps for launching the campaign will be taken following delivery by Senator Harding of his speech of acceptance on July 22.

In all these preliminaries Senator Harding is taking an active part. He is planning his campaign managers that is making plain to his campaign managers that he must be the dominant director of the campaign and plans matured cannot be considered perfected until they have met with his approval.

Assurances were given Senator Harding yesterday by Walter F. Brown, of Toledo, Ohio, of the support of the Harding-Coolidge ticket by the Roosevelt following. Brown was one of the most active Roosevelt men in the 1916 fight. Following Harding's nomination Brown rounded up the Roosevelt leaders and at a dinner in New York, held at the Harvard Club, attended by about 25 of the Roosevelt leaders, resolutions were passed pledging support to the Republican nominees. Telegrams were sent by many who could not attend the dinner, including Governor Allen and Henry Allen White of Kansas, endorsing the action taken.

Brown told Senator Harding that Ohio would go Republican at the national elections. The third ticket, he said, even if it could be launched which he doubted, would draw more heavily in Ohio from Cox, the Democratic nominee, than from Harding. He did not think that Senator La Follette of Wisconsin could be induced to head the third ticket.

CHEAPER COAL IS SEEN BY OHIO MINE INSPECTOR, REPORT

Says Price Hinges On Car Supply; To Drop To Seven Dollars.

Columbus, July 9.—Jerome Watson, chief mine inspector of Ohio, declared coal would not be more than $7 a ton to the consumer if the railroads could furnish 85 per cent of the car demand. He stated that the order of the interstate commerce commission demanding cars for the mine operators has reaped very little result except on one or two roads. He estimated that coal would be lower than $9 before many months. Watson declares the present high price is due to the speculation with the small operator, who sells his product for whatever figure, he is offered, whereas the larger operators are putting their coal on the market at a much lower mark. Ohio mines, according to Watson, are capable of producing 6,000,000 tons a month. If this output could be distributed, the price would drop to around $7, he asserted.

20,000 TURKISH FORCES ANNIHILATED

Smyrna, July 9.—A force of 20,000 Turkish nationalists on the northern battle front in Anatolia (Asia Minor) has been annihilated, said a Greek army communique today. About 5,000 of the Turks escaped towards Broussau. "We inflicted 1,500 casualties. Fifteen hundred of the Turkish prisoners were retained for military reasons and the others were released."

PRESENT PERSHING WITH GOLD SWORD

Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador to the United States, presenting a jeweled gold sword to General Pershing on behalf of the City of London. The presentation took place at the British Embassy, Washington. The sword is inscribed with a legend commemorating the services not only of General Pershing but of all "who trained and marched and fought" under his command.

RECOGNITION OF MEXICAN REGIME NOT DELAYED

Disclosures Made By Daughter Of Carranza Not To Deter Action Of State Department; Lack Of Proofs.

Washington, July 9.—Recognition of the new government in Mexico will not be delayed by the disclosures made to the state department by Miss Julia Carranza concerning the alleged responsibility of General Obregon for the death of General Carranza, it was indicated today at the state department after a careful study of the merits of the report filed in behalf of the daughter of the late Mexican chief.

Acting-Secretary of State Davis today read Miss Carranza's protest, aided at the present regime in Mexico, but declined to make any statement as to its importance in pending negotiations.

The state department, it is said, looks upon Miss Carranza's protest as an incident not wholly unexpected, and inclines to the view that it can not carry much weight because the charges are couched in language of the most general character, and are lacking in specific proof that would refute data already in the department's possession.

Obregon is responsible for General Carranza's death is somewhat discounted, according to officials here by other reports gathered by trained investigators of the state department on the ground in Mexico.

Sporadic outbreaks among various rebellious elements in Mexico against the De La Huerta government reported today in advices from American consular officials in Mexico were not accepted by the state department as indicating that a general revolt against the new Mexican government is imminent.

Most of the fighting has been between small bands of disgruntled Mexican, numbering in most instances less than 100 and poorly armed. Consuls reported that in all of the minor revolts since De La Huerta assumed control the federal troops have successfully routed the small bands after brief attacks.

The situation, according to the consular dispatches, is steadily improving and recent developments strengthen the belief that the new government will be sufficiently stable to restore peace and order within a short period.

They declared their business to be threatened with destruction. Speaker at speaker at the commission's open hearing on the order declared his business would be forced to close down and his employees thrown out of work unless the order was rescinded or modified.

There are no indications, however, that the commission will make any change in the order, which was issued two weeks ago, for the purpose of relieving coal shortages throughout the eastern states. Industries protesting against the order include those manufacturing or dealing in crushed stone, cement, sand, gravel and lime and also general building contractors.

Preceding testimony of their representatives, the commission heard Daniel Willard, chairman of the advisory committee of the Association of Railway executives, who declared that priority of service favoring the more essential commodities is necessary to relieve the present freight congestion.

HONORS PAID GENERAL GORGAS

London, July 9.—Unusual honors were paid today when funeral ceremonies for the late Major General William C. Gorgas, former surgeon general of the United States army, were conducted in St. Paul's cathedral. King George was represented by Sir John Goodwin. Thirteen guns boomed a salute as the funeral procession started from the Queen Alexandra military hospital.

MISSING BOY'S CLOTHES FOUND ON CREEK BANK

Athens, July 9.—Police have been searching for three days for Edwin Biggs, 9, whose clothing was found Tuesday on the banks of the Hocking river. The identity of the boys he accompanied to the river cannot be learned. The mother of the Biggs boy was burned to death several years ago.

GERMANY ACCEPTS DISARMAMENT PLAN; REDUCES ARMY TO 100,000

MILITARY AID FOR POLAND IS ASKED OF ALLIES

Country Has Plenty Of Supplies But Is Out-numbered.

NOT AFTER INDEMNITY

Reserve Army Is Being Raised To Check Russian Bolsheviks.

Spa, Belgium, July 9.—A formal plea for military aid for Poland was laid before Premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerand today by Premier Grabsky of Poland.

Poland has plenty of guns, munitions and airplanes but is outnumbered by the Russians in men. Premier Grabsky told the International News Service.

"Report regarding the situation in the east have been exaggerated," declared the Polish statesman. "We are now engaged in raising a reserve army which will go a long way towards stopping the Russian bolshevik. We have plenty of munitions; we have the Russians beaten in airplanes and we have enough artillery but we are outnumbered. The situation is not grave."

Premier Grabsky denied that Poland is pressing the allies for her share of indemnity.

"We consider that secondary to military aid," said the premier.

"We prefer that such nations as France be compensated first."

Premier Grabsky was then asked concerning the report that Germany is pressing the allies to reopen the discussion regarding the future of Danzig. He said:

"The allies will not discuss Danzig with Germany. The peace treaty settled the status of that city. Germany cannot gain a revision of the treaty on that point."

Premier Grabsky refused to reveal the nature of the aid Poland was seeking from the allies until he had discussed it with the allied premiers.

LEADERS OF THIRD PARTY BEGIN TASK TO UNITE UNITS

Party Will Convene Saturday In Chicago To Name Ticket.

Chicago, July 9.—Leaders of the new third party which is to convene here Saturday to place a national ticket in the field on a platform termed by its backers as far more "liberal" than those of the Republican and Democratic parties, today began the task of harmonizing the various elements and factions which are to compose the party.

One of the chief problems confronting the national leaders of the committee of forty eight, who are here undertaking the preliminary work of party construction is that of bringing the newly organized labor party into the fold, it was learned today. While the labor party, which is to convene here at the same time, is backed chiefly by John Fitzpatrick, Edward Nockels and other Chicago labor leaders in opposition to the wishes of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and therefore lacks the official sanction of the federation, still it possesses considerable influence among union labor organization and it is believed would be a welcome acquisition to the third party ranks.

PIQUA CONTRACTORS AWARDED CONTRACT

J. C. Mercer and Son, contractors, of Piqua, were awarded the contract for the sewer extension in district 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6, at the opening of the bids at 12 o'clock Thursday.

The bid was $28,628.37. At the regular commission meeting Thursday night, the bonds for the work, amounting to $23,000 were sold to the same company, at 5 1/2 per cent interest. A reissue to complete the extension will be necessary.

Moore, of Youngstown, Ohio, manager for Governor Cox during the convention and credited with the Governor's victory, is slated to replace Homer S. Cummings, a strong Wilson man, as chairman of the Democratic committee, it is said.

IRISH POLICE GIVE ULTIMATUM; REBEL AGAINST ENGLISH

Constabulary Refuse To Perform Any But Routine Duties.

Dublin, July 9.—A "police revolt" was reported from County Kerry today. Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary were said to have disobeyed orders to make political raids and conduct searches.

Police attached to the Killarney and Cahiree barracks refused to perform any but ordinary police duties and declared that they would not "associate with soldiers in dirty work" according to reports received here. The "revolting" constables originally intended to resign in a body but delayed action pending a conference with the authorities. Several liaison officers acting between the soldiers and constabulary addressed the dissatisfied men and asked them to state their complaints.

A constable named McNamees was chosen spokesman for the insurgents and he informed the officers that the constables would not co-operate with the soldiers. He said that soldiers might be shot if they attempted to force their way into the constabulary barracks. He declared further that the constables would not bear arms and that they would not conduct raids.

"We are Irish and you are English," cried McNamees. "This is your answer." Whereupon he tore off his belt and tunic and threw them at the feet of Inspector General Smith. The inspector general ordered McNamees' arrest but another constable stepped forward and drew his revolver shouting that he would kill the man who dared lay hands on McNamees.

The amazed officers withdrew to confer among themselves. A full report of the incident was drawn up and Sinn Fein managed to secure a copy of it.

SUCCUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS FRIDAY

The child's illness began with whooping cough and she had been ill for about eight months. Her condition had been critical for the past twelve weeks.

The little girl was two years and three months of age and is survived by her parents, 1 sister, Frances, aged 11 and a brother, Allen, 7. Funeral services will be held at the apartment Sunday afternoon at two o'clock in charge of Rev. Charles Bennett. Interment will be made at Bannetown.

Trenton, N. J., July 9.—Governor Edward I. Edwards received the following telegram from Gov. James M. Cox, Ohio, replying to message congratulating him on receiving Democratic presidential nomination: "Glad to receive such a message from New Jersey. Victory is ours."

SIGNS PROPOSAL FRIDAY; PROTEST ALLIES IN RUHR

Granted Six Months To Effect Reduction In Her Forces.

LARGE ARMED FORCES

Allies Prepared To Extend Occupation In Event Of Refusal.

Spa, Belgium, July 9.—The allied plan for the disarmament of Germany, granting six months for the reduction of the German armed force to 100,000 men and the destruction of German war materials in accordance with the terms of the treaty of Versailles was accepted by Germany today.

The German delegation, headed by Chancellor Konstantin Fehrenbach, signed the allied disarmament proposal at 11:30 o'clock. The Germans made verbal protest against any occupation of the Ruhr district by allied troops on the ground that it would paralyze German industry.

The Germans had admitted that there were more than 1,000,000 armed men in Germany. According to the terms of the allied plans which were drawn up by Marshal Foch and Field Marshal Wilson of the British general staff, the German government must reduce its armed forces to 150,000 men by October and complete the reduction to 100,000 men the following three months.

The allied proposals were conveyed in the form of an ultimatum and Germany beyond the present zones of occupation. In the event of rejection the allies threatened to extend their military occupation of Germany beyond the present zones of occupation.

The discussions revealed that Germany still has 7,850 airplanes and that they are retaining 72 naval vessels that should have been turned over to the allies.

NAMES OF CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS ON BALLOT

Entirely Separate Tickets Will Be Used, Report.

Columbus, July 9.—Names of candidates for presidential electors for Harding and Coolidge and Cox and Roosevelt will appear this fall on tickets entirely separate from the state ticket in Ohio, it was announced at the office of Secretary of State Smith. This will be the first time that state and national tickets have been separated in presidential years. The change is brought about by the legislation enacted by the legislature in 1917.

A Democratic legislature in 1915 first enacted a law to separate the state and national tickets, but it was repealed in 1915 by a Republican legislature before it could be put into effect. Later, when a Democratic legislature was elected with Governor Cox in 1916, the measure was again enacted. The last Republican legislature again repealed the law, but Governor Cox vetoed the repeal and it now becomes effective. As a result, the candidates for United States senator and congress will have their names printed on the state ticket, which will be headed by gubernatorial candidates.

AUTO DAMAGED; STRUCK BY CAR

Walter Phillips, of Yellow Springs, received painful contusions when the automobile owned and driven by I. E. Oglesbee, in which he was riding was struck by the 11 o'clock Springfield and Xenia interurban north of Yellow Springs Thursday morning. Oglesbee had stopped his car to permit a passenger to alight and in doing so stalled his engine with the machine on the tracks. The car struck the front end of the automobile smashing the front wheels and radiator and otherwise damaging it. Oglesbee, Theodore Dawson and two other men in the car jumped and were uninjured.

DAYTON POLICE ARE CONFRONTED BY CASE OF MYSTERY SHOOTING

Dayton, July 9.—While police here were investigating the mysterious murder of Roy Shay, Western Union messenger, whose body was found Wednesday afternoon they were confronted with another murder case in the probable fatal shooting of Miss George Ooten, 20, by W. C. Wysong, 65, a painter.

The second shooting occurred in the offices of the McAllister Motor Sales Company, on the seventh floor of the Lindsey building at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning. The girl is in Miami Valley Hospital in a serious condition, with three bullet wounds in her body. Wysong is lodged in jail with a charge of shooting with intent to kill which will be changed to murder in event the girl dies.

The second shooting in the heart of the business section, is believed to have been due to jealousy, although police are baffled for an adequate motive. Investigation of the death of Roy Shay has so far been futile also.

A Liver With 80 H. P.

Well maybe there is no such animal, but your liver in proper condition will show as much power for good health. An 80 H. P. engine can't show results when all clogged up and half raked to pieces.

The liver does not ache, nor growl nor cramp, but when it needs attention, your tongue, your eyes, your brain, your whole body knows it.

The very first warning indicates you need a Blacko Stomach and Liver Tablet. It will give immediate, pleasing and genuine corrective results. Blacko Tablets are an old time family physician's remedy—the more you take the less you need. And they are not habit-forming.

From your druggist, or mailed direct, postpaid. 25 cts. box of 28, with complete directions.

OBITUARY

Death is just the going away into another realm; and the parting of earthly ties is sad because there is no message that may bridge the silence; let us find consolation in the belief that death is not a dreadful doom that must overtake us all but a beautiful mystery through which we must pass as through an open gate into a realm where hidden things are made plain to us. Thus to Volney B. Conklin came the solution of the mystery of death on June 18, 1920, at the age of 71 years and 20 days.

He was born to Henry and Mary Davis Conklin, near Wilmington, Clinton county, Ohio, May 28, 1849, being the second in a family of nine children, two of whom with the father and mother, have entered the mysterious realm from whence no traveler returns.

His parents and grandparents were born in New York; his grandfather Conklin being a shipbuilder, helped to build the first steamboat ever launched on the Hudson river. It might be interesting to note that his father, Henry Conklin, who was at one time in early life a carriage maker, having built a carriage for the use of his family after his marriage to Mary Davis.

Volney Conklin was married to Elma Johnson Oct. 1, 1874, at the home of her father near Bowersville, and the young couple went to housekeeping on a farm near Martinsville, Clinton Co. No children came to brighten this home and the wife is left to walk life's pathway without the companionship and comfort that children bring in declining years.

The surviving brothers and sisters are as follows: Albert Conklin, Selma, Ohio; Edward Conklin, Cale, Arkansas; Mrs. Ida Lowry, Cedarville, Ohio; Roscoe Conklin, Xenia, Ohio; Arthur Conklin, Dayton, Ohio; Harry Steele, Xenia, Ohio.

Volney Conklin was an excellent judge of stock and always took great delight in owning and caring for fine horses and cattle. He took unusual interest and pride in the upkeep of a farm, and each farm that he owned was kept in excellent repair and made beautiful by the application of paint and the planting of young trees.

He lived near Bowersville 12 years, moving from there to Logan county. After a period of 19 years he sold his farm with the intention of retiring from farm life, and with his wife came to their former home, now in possession of a brother-in-law, Lon Johnson, to spend the summer and where he passed away under the protection of the maple trees which he had so carefully planted 31 years ago.

He was not a member of any church but contributed largely to its support in each neighborhood, where he lived. He was a believer in the Divine Creator and His power to care for each and every one and "He who watcheth the sparrow in its fall," will surely care for one of His created children.

Volney Conklin was of a genial disposition and a lover of people. He made friends wherever he was located among rich and poor alike. "We measure not our life in years but by the companionship of each other." This being true Volney Conklin's life was long though his years numbered only the more than the three score and ten allotted to us in scripture.

The following stanzas are especially suited to his life as he lived it: There are hermit souls that live withdrawn

In the peace of their self-content;

There are souls, like stars that dwell apart,

In a fellowless firmament;

There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths

Where highways never ran—

But let me live by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road,

By the side of the highway of life,

The men who press with the ardor of hope,

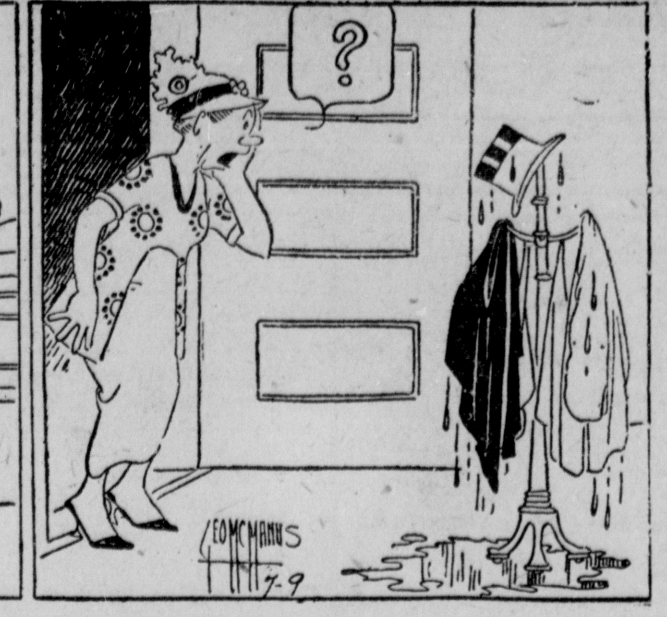

The men who are faint with the strife,

But I turn not away from their smiles

Nor their tears—

Both parts of an infinite plan;

BRINGING UP FATHER"

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

The daisies hold their faces up—
And catch the sunshine from the sky.
I might catch sunshine in my heart
If when I'm out of doors I try.

Let me live in my house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

Let me live in my house by the side of the road

Where the race of men go by—

They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong.

Wise, foolish, so am I.

Then why should I sit in the scorners seat,

Or hurl the cynic's ban?

Let me live in my house by the side of the road

And be a friend to man.

—Sam Walter Foss.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Nut and Macaroni Savory—Cut one cup of boiled macaroni into bowl. Add one-half pound chopped Brazil or other nuts, one and three-quarters cups bread crumbs. Salt, pepper and powdered mace to taste, two tablespoons chopped parsley, two eggs well beaten, three cups milk.

Mix and turn into well greased earthenware dish. Pour over top three tablespoons of melted butter substitute. Sprinkle with cracker dust and cheese grated.

Bake forty-five minutes in moderate oven.

Salmon Soup—Purify one can of salmon, add one quart milk, one tablespoon butter, salt and pepper to taste, heat to boiling point, then pour slowly into two well beaten eggs, return to stove for two minutes; serve piping hot.

Deathborn Pudding—One cup suet chopped fine, one cup chopped raisins, one cup sweet milk, one-half cup molasses, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, salt, one egg, two teaspoons baking powder sifted with flour. Use enough flour to make as stiff as cake dough; steam three hours. Serve with any good sauce.

Shortcake—To four cups of flour sift five teaspoons of baking powder.

der. Add five tablespoons of lard and mix whole combination with cold water sufficient to make a dough. Then take enough dough to fit the baking tin; roll it out and place it in tin on top of first roll. (By making two rolls and spreading butter between them the cutting of the cake while still hot and the resulting heaviness is avoided.) Now place the tin in the oven and bake twenty to twenty-five minutes, depending on whether gas or coal is used. Meantime prepare one and one-half quarts of any berries, and when cake is baked through spread the berries between the layers and on top. Serve while hot.

A ROSE Chapter 58

Mr. Watkins seemed to like Mary at once. She really was a wonder. She started right in as if she had been a waitress all her life. About an hour after the place opened we happened to be near each other for a moment, and she jingled some change and said:

"My first tips, Zena! I felt like a beggar when I took the first one—now I'm lookin' for 'em."

I had been so embarrassed by my tips. I knew something of what she felt. But while she had become used to taking them in an hour, I felt sure I never would overcome the feeling that I was making myself an object of charity, or be able to accept them without flushing. Yet I realized that I was foolish. I needed the tips; it was customary for patrons to give them.

Should I object, it would not only be foolish but probably make me an object of ridicule.

So I pocketed my pride and my tips. "Gee, but I'm tired!" Mary said as we ate our luncheon, a better one than we had been able to afford, and to which we did justice.

"Pretty nifty grub!" Mary added after a moment.

"Isn't it good?" I returned.

"I am going to make good here, Zena. I'm goin' to be one of them head waitresses, you see if I don't."

"I haven't a doubt but you will, Mary. But I never shall—I couldn't"

From the first day that I had worked in the restaurant, I had noticed a young man who seemed to take his meals there. He had attracted me by the embarrassed way he tipped me. He was tall and thin. He ate delicately, also very sparingly. He looked like a student. I thought yet seemed a bit old, about 30. His clothes were shiny, but he was always very neat and clean, his linen spotless, his shoes shined.

"That pale-faced guy is falling in love with you, Zena," Mary said about a week after she commenced to work in the restaurant. He wouldn't take the place the head wanted him to today, but motioned that he wanted to sit at your table.

"Don't be imagining things, Mary. He probably hadn't a single thought of me. Perhaps he liked the location of the table."

"What you blushin' for if it's that? He looks all right—poor tho. You can't marry a poor man, Zena. Not as poor as him. He couldn't take care of your mother I know."

"As he never will have the chance, Mary! What's the use of talking about it? Some way I am sort of sorry for him. I wish he wouldn't tip me. He looks as if he didn't eat enough."

"Better take his tips if you don't want to hurt his feelin's. I tried that gag with an old man the other night. Told him we didn't expect tips. He knew I was lyin' and that I had seen he didn't order hardly nothin' at all. He was that same kind as your young man, and he just gave me one look and said: "I do as others do. You have served me very nicely." Then he left 15 cents by his plate—he had only eat 5 cents worth.

Mary had often astonished me by little things that showed her kindness. She probably would never have mentioned this experience had I not said I wished the young man would not tip me.

After this talk with Mary I watched him when he came in. It was as she had said. He refused other tables, often waiting until someone left so he could sit where I would wait upon him. He always spoke pleasantly before he ordered, and after he had finished. He had a quiet, cultivated voice, and I noticed when he smiled that he had beautiful teeth, white and even.

One day he laid a beautiful rose beside his plate when he got up from the table. He blushed as he did so. That night he gave me no tip. I knew, as well as if he had told me, that he had bought the rose to give me, and also that he probably couldn't afford to do both. I thanked him but waited to pick it up until he had gone.

"What did I tell you?" Mary asked. She had observed the incident. "I guess I know when a fellow is in love!"

D. S. & S. O HOME REUNION ENDS IN VAUDEVILLE THURSDAY

With a masquerade ball and vaudeville entertainment, the fortieth annual reunion of the Association of Ex-Pupils of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, came to close Thursday night. The closing event took place in the armory. It was unique in the history of reunions among former pupils of the institution. Woods' Jazz Band from Cincinnati played for the dancing, and masqueraders, in all sorts of costumes, took part in the grand march, and in the dancing. Between dance numbers a vaudeville program was given.

A feature of the vaudeville program was the dancing by Miss Tucker, of Canton, daughter of an ex-pupil. Music for her dancing was furnished by Miss Ida May Wooley, Cincinnati, ukelele, and Joseph Wood, Cincinnati, pianist. Miss Mary Ackley, of Cincinnati, fiddle; Mr. H. H. Vpwoes' aew, rpp gave a whistling specialty accompanied by Mrs. Laura Hauck, Batavia, piano. A. G. Snyder of Cincinnati gave a number on the rattlebones. The closing feature was a minstrel specialty by Woods' Band.

The evening's program was arranged by Fred Wooley, of Cincinnati, chairman of the music committee.

The reunion was one of the most successful and largely attended in the history of the gatherings, according to I. W. Thrasher, of Newport, Ky., who was re-elected president of the A. X. P.

At the second business session of the Association of Ex-Pupils Thursday, Mr. Thrasher was made permanent chairman of the memorial building committee. Announcement was made to the Ex-Pupils by Superintendent J. P. Elton at the meeting that all the experienced members of the Home band will have been discharged from the institution next year, consequently the band will not be able to furnish the music at the next reunion. Two years ago, the association had adopted a resolution that the Home cadet band should be employed to furnish the music at the reunions. The announcement of Superintendent Elton will necessitate other musical arrangements being made for next year.

SERIOUS CHARGE TO BE LODGED AGAINST CIRCUS EMPLOYEES

William Meaders and Thomas McKinney, circus employees, were charged with a serious criminal offense against 14 year old Lily Anderson of Goes Station, in affidavits filed in the court of Magistrate J. E. Jones Friday afternoon. The warrants were turned over to Sheriff Funderburg to serve upon Meaders and McKinney, who are held in the county jail. The men were arrested by Piqua police Wednesday night, after Probate J. C. Marshall had requested the authorities in that city to look for the Anderson girl, whose father reported that she had been abducted in a box car belonging to the circus that gave an exhibition here Thursday.

A charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor was first placed against the men, but it was decided after more particulars of the case were learned that the men were guilty of a more serious offense.

Fourteen year old Lily Anderson, who went to Piqua in a circus box car, and was picked up there by police upon request of Probate Judge Marshall when the two men were arrested, is held on a charge of juvenile delinquency. Myrtle Shanks, 17, who said that she went as far as Kilcare Park in the car and then jumped off, is held under the same charge. The girl is an orphan and has been making her home with her brother, Harvey Shanks on Miller Avenue.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS OF COUNTY HOLD CONFERENCE IN XENIA THURSDAY

Enthusiasm characterized the get-together conference of officers and Sunday school workers of the county which was held Thursday night at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

A picnic dinner preceded the evening program. It was served in the basement of the church, where a committee of women arranged the tables from the baskets of food which were prepared in the homes.

The Rev. Leroy V. Simms of Yellow Springs, president of the Greene County Sunday School Association under whose direction the meeting was arranged, presided at the conference which followed dinner. He spoke of the object of the conference to encourage interest in Sunday school work and promote it throughout the county. He congratulated the 75 people present upon the attendance, and upon the fact that they represented different portions of the county. The most distant point in the county represented at the meeting was Perry, which is situated in Sugarcreek township, almost on the border between Greene and Warren counties. Yellow Springs, Cedarville, New Jasper and Xenia all had good representations.

Officers of the Greene County Sunday School Association for this year are: President, Rev. L. V. Simms, Yellow Springs; vice president, Rev. W. P. Harriman, Cedarville; secretary, Miss Edna Mitchell, Xenia; treasurer, S. C. Wright, Cedarville. Superintendent of elementary work, Mrs. A. E. Faulkner, Xenia; superintendent of Young People's Department, Prof. A. J. Black, Xenia; and Mrs. F. P. Hastings, Xenia; adult superintendent, C. P. Yowler, Xenia; administrative superintendent, Rev. H. C. Biddlecum, Xenia; educational superintendent, Mrs. W. O. Custis, Xenia. The executive committee consists of: Rev. Jerome Schulz, Fairfield; Mrs. Emma Conner, Jamestown, and F. L. Corry, Yellow Springs.

RAISED TO TEN CENTS Because of the increase in expenses of all kinds, it was decided at the conference that the sum per member necessary for covering the expenses of the County Sunday School Association should be raised from five cents to ten cents.

XENIA FOUNDRY AND MACHINE COMPANY STARTS WORK FRIDAY WITH FIFTEEN MEN

Xenia entered a new field of industrial activity Friday morning, when the Xenia Foundry and Machine Co., Xenia's new $50,000 corporation, began work with fifteen men employed.

Despite delays in securing machinery and equipment, the new company has made a record breaking start by getting into active operation within but a few months.

The molds were laid and prepared during Friday morning and by noon the first metal was poured. The castings made were the first of a series of orders that will keep the concern at work for the next eleven months, without another new contract.

While some of the castings poured Friday will be used by the company itself, the majority of the castings will go to fill orders, to Dayton, Cincinnati, Detroit and cities in Indiana, including automobile manufacturing concerns. The number of initial orders received shows the enormous demand for gray iron castings and bespeaks a steady and natural growth that insures success for the company in the future.

Untiring efforts on the part of the officials, W. M. Huston and Ernest Pester, both practical foundry men, have enabled the new industry to get under way this soon. The cupola held under way the start of operations, for some time. The fires were started in the big cupola Friday morning and used. Alblower was attached at that time. Though the big tumbler, used to knock the rough edges off the castings, have arrived they had not yet been installed Friday morning, but will be ready to operate by the time they are really needed.

Mr. Pester has already moved his family to this city and is living on state Sunday School convention at Hamilton recently gave two minute talks regarding things which impressed them at the convention. Those who spoke were Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Bennett, The Rev. W. P. Harriman, of Cedarville; the Rev. Mr. Pine of Perry; Miss Irene Wright, Miss Rose Stormont and Miss Ella Blair of Cedarville, Mrs. W. O. Custis and Miss Eula Custis.

Sunday School workers were urged by the Rev. Mr. Simms as president if the county association to bend every effort to reach the goal which has been set for the county this year. This goal is to increase the attendance in each school 25 per cent. The practicability of offering prizes in this connection was discussed, but no action was taken. It is expected, however, that some action will be taken soon.

Stomach, bowels, kidney and liver had him discouraged. He took Drecto, the great medicine and feels like himself again.

"I often said I would give half my farm if I could only get some medicine that would get my stomach, bowels and kidneys right again," said Mr. Wallace Berryhill, the prosperous farmer of Bellbrook, Greene Co. O.

"Years ago I visited down in Alabama and got ptomaine poison from eating sea crabs and was years getting better, in fact I didn't really improve fast till I got some of this Drecto. I feel so much better that I can hardly realize now that I had suffered for so long. All the pain and nausea in my stomach is gone; also lump in my throat and my stomach is flat instead of being bloated with gas. I am gaining in solid flesh; sleep all night long and don't have to get up one time with my kidneys. My nerves are under wonderful control and not many men of my age have the steady hand that I have. My bowels act regular every morning which makes me feel good all day.

"Drecto is great to build up waning strength, for I am doing work on my place that I gave up last year as beyond me. In fact I had concluded to sell our farm and retire and was about to close the deal when I began taking Drecto and today I don't want to sell, for I am able to conduct my affairs as usual, and I credit Drecto with all of this."

At the meeting of the City Commission held Thursday night in the commission chamber, City Manager Kenyon Riddle was instructed to enter into contract with the Dayton Work House for the care of Xenia prisoners.

The Dayton institution charges 70 cents a day for keep of prisoners which is the same rate in effect here when the work house closed. EVERYTHING HAS ITS PROBLEMS, BY SOLVING WHICH, HUMANITY IS HELPED FORWARD.

It was Longfellow who said: "The same object seen from the three different points of view—the past, the present and the future—often exhibits three different faces to us; like those sign-boards over shop doors, which represent the face of a lion as we approach, of a man when we are in front, and of an ass when we have passed." In other words, conditions change with time.

The moral law of the universe is Progress. No generation should pass idly over the earth without adding to that progress. Every age has its problem, by solving which, humanity is helped forward. It was Beecher who said: "We should so live and labor in our time that what came to us as seed may go to the next generation as blossom, and what came to us as blossom may go to the next as fruit."

Washington, in his farewell address, warned us as a nation to beware of "entangling alliances with foreign nations." But he so explained what he meant, that we think there is no doubt but that he had in mind the idea that this country should "avoid either friendship or enmity "with European interests" which to us have none, or very remote relation." In other words we are not to take sides.

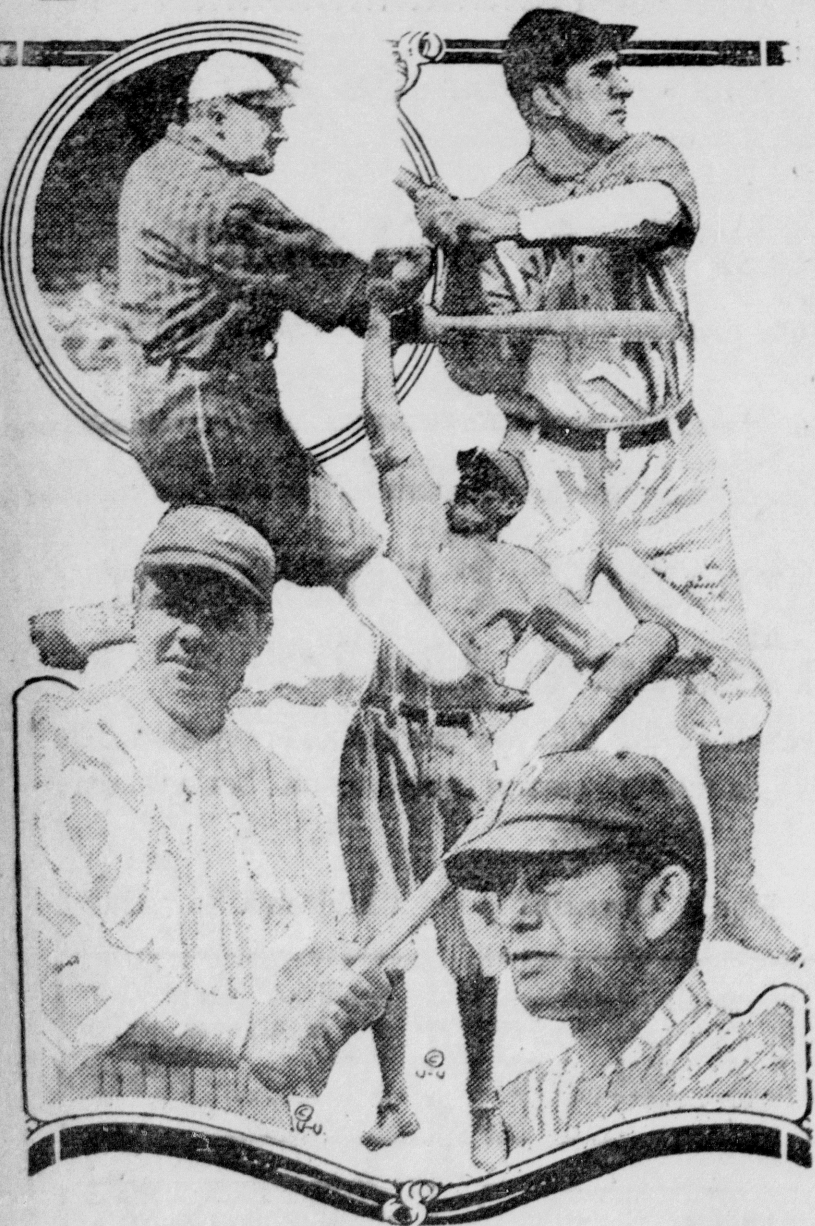

That's all right—and with this we all agree. But we do not doubt but that if George Washington was alive today—having been a very wise, broad-minded statesman—and recognizing the changed condition of world affairs—he would favor what we know as "the Treaty of Peace with reservations"—for in this same farewell address he enjoined us to "observe good faith and justice towards all nations, cultivating peace and harmony with all."

The world has so changed, in the 124 years since Washington's Farewell Address was written, that it is a quite different world. And so our relation to it has changed. We can no longer think of ourselves as isolated from the rest of the world. We are citizens not alone of the United States, but of the world. One utterance of General Leonard Wood, during the late Presidential campaign, for which he was much criticised, was this: "Avoid Internationalism as you would death." We can't avoid it—we are in for it—as we are in for Progress in everything.

Did you notice that Louis D. Brandeis, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was elected President of the International Zionist Conference which convened at London on Wednesday, to formulate a political program that will be urged for Palestine. Not the Jews alone call for vengeance against the Turks for their crimes, which "not the mercy of angels could palliate," but the whole world unites in seeking justice against the barbarians, including our country.

Because great changes are always being made in human affairs, the minds of men will be fitted to them. Today is not yesterday. We ourselves change. Those who persist in opposing this mighty current will appear rather to resist the decrees of Providence itself.

Yankee fans have got the idea pretty firmly fixed in their minds that the American league race is all over but the awarding of the pennant and the pretty pins to the boys. Babe Ruth's hitting even better than the most rabid bugs thought he would, the other sluggers are backing him up and Huggins' pitching staff looks better every day.

THOSE DREAMY EYES

The girl who is the possessor of dreamy eyes has been praised by poets and artists from the very beginning of time.

I do not wonder that so many then write to me and ask how to obtain this special mark of beauty. And what can I say? Is it possible to put dreams into the mind of the unimaginative? Isn't it likely that the dreamy type of girl will have dreamy eyes.

I should like to think so, and it is indeed the logical thing to think. But I'm afraid it isn't always so. For I have known girls of the dreamy sort whose eyes never suggested it at all and I have known girls whose eyes seemed full of dreams—and it was only a cloak for mental blankness. I am inclined to think that anyone possessing fair sized eyes and long lashes can be as "dreamy" in appearance as she desires.

You'll notice I said fair sized eyes. Small eyes are bright, quick or shrewd but never dreamy. Small eyes can be very pretty—quite as attractive as large ones in fact. But if you want dreamy eyes—I think probably you can have them! That girl in the picture has not dreamy eyes—but she looks as though she had. That's because she has tilted back her head and shadowed her eyes by the narrowing of the eyelashes.

The eyelashes, of course, can be cultivated as scientifically, as the hair of the head. If only you have the patience to do so. Whether you crave dreamy eyes or not, it's an excellent idea to stimulate the growth of the lashes; it helps beautify the eyes.

Anxious—I don't know anything about rubber garments for reducing. I've had letters from people who have tried them who say they are excellent, and I've had letters from people who have tried them and say they are no good. So there it is. They sound very uncomfortable to me. I should say that it required much less self-sacrifice and that it was infinitely more comfortable to go without certain foods than to encase one's body in a rubber sheath. But this is not my "dreamy eyes" column. Have you "dreamy eyes?" all a matter of choice. If you don't mind wearing a rubber covering and you find it impossible to resist pastries and mean then doubtless you will find it easier to reduce by this rubber garment method.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turps Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
